

The Brit Funk Association

It was providential and not coincidental that upon asking that 'Somebody Help Me Out' to perform at our 2017 awards, namely Beggar & Co, theirco founder trumpeter Kenny Wellington offered me his new project the BFA. Made up of four UK Brit Jazz Funk royalty outfits, original members of Central Line, Light Of The World, Beggar & Co and Hi Tension, amalgamated to become a Kool & The Gang titled classic 'Superband'. They rendition classics like 'Hi Tension', 'London Town', 'Walking Into Sunshine', 'Somebody Help Me Out', 'Movin'' 'Funky Stuff' and 'There's A Reason'. Since their debut at Under The Bridge, the BFA have played at various events including Caister, 100 Club, Pizza Express London, and even Butlins weekends have got in on the act. They have released an album on Expansion Records and continue to tour in and outside the UK. On my recommendation I'm glad Eli saw the benefit to book The Brit Funk Association who will most certainly 'Let The Music Blow Your Mind'.
